

INFORMATION und REGISTRATION PEACECAMP 2023

Information Sheet

peacecamp is a 10-day multicultural encounter of young people of different nationalities/religions/cultures.

peacecamp builds on pedagogical-therapeutic workshops in which the young participants are challenged to deal with their own and "foreign" stories, religions and cultures. In this way, political reality(s) and narratives should be learned and discussed to contribute towards a more peaceful world for everyone.

In the workshops non-violent forms of problem and conflict management are tested, one's own conscious and unconscious feelings towards "others" are explored and active, solidarity-based action is encouraged.

The young participants should learn to achieve common goals through creativity and cooperation. Boundaries (both physical and linguistic, distances or those in the mind) should be conquered.

Cornerstones of the encounter are psychology, social work, political activism and art.

The project took place annually from 2004 to 2019, had to pause for 3 years due to the pandemic and will return in 2023.

A project of the association 4Peace, the psychoanalyst Mag. Evelyn Böhmer-Laufer.

Principles:

peacecamp is an inclusive project. We want to empower every participant and team member to take the most out of the peacecamp experience, regardless of their economic background, physical or cognitive abilities, looks, body-shape, ethnicity, gender-identity, romantic orientation, religious beliefs or cultural background.

peacecamp is a safe-space. We are here to learn with and from each other and empower each other.

peacecamp is for everybody. All people present at peacecamp have the same right to participate in it.

peacecamp is about its participants. Adults have more practice in making themselves heard and putting their thoughts into words. However, the allotted time for speaking for teenagers has priority over that of the adults. We are committed to holding space for those who might not be the fastest to speak up, in order to make sure everyone is heard.

peacecamp is hard work. Work can be frustrating sometimes. It is ok to take breaks. The important part is that we don't give up on each other.

peacecamp's the 10 rules for peace:

1. DO always communicate in English, which is the language common to all on peacecamp. It does not matter if you make mistakes. You can always ask a friend or an adult to help you translate or express yourself in english.

2. DO always address people directly: talk TO - not ABOUT somebody.

3. DO respect the structure and time-table of the peacecamp: DO arrive on time and attend ALL meals and workshops. All meals have to be taken in the youth hostel.

4. DO share and express your opinions and feelings openly, frankly. DO stand up for your convictions. DO tell us if something bothers you, but do it respectfully.

5. DO respect rest- and sleeping-hours of the people in and around the youth hostel. Curfew is at 10 pm. If you stay up in your room and play music after this hour, please close the windows, so that the neighbours can sleep undisturbed. You will need all the sleep you can get. If you stay up longer than your room-mates, DO respect their need to sleep. DO sleep in the rooms assigned to you.

6. DO treat the space and environment with respect and care. DO observe waste separation. We have separate bins for plastic, paper, metal, organic and "general" waste as well as for bottles. Our Austrian friends will show you how to do this.

7. DO NOT hurt, offend or attack others - neither verbally nor in action. Fight for your views and convictions, but do this respectfully and try to listen to the other person's point of view.

8. DO NOT damage or waste things: Handle equipment with respect and care. DO leave rooms and equipment as you would like to find them. Try to keep the in- and outdoor space clean and beautiful.

9. DO keep the peacecamp area free of cigarettes, alcohol and drugs of any kind.

10. DO give your best in order to take home as much as you can. Know that your best is always is enough and you DO NOT need to compare yourself to others. DO respect your own boundaries as well as those of others.

Please remember: We are coming from different countries, cultures and religions. We may be eating different food, wearing different clothes or having different lifestyles.

Let's be open to new views without condemning others. Let's explore ways to experiment with the unknown while respecting each one's personal space.
